1. We accept consignments on Mondays from 10am-5pm unless otherwise posted on our social media. Please check for weekly updates prior to drop offs. We will only consider a maximum of 15 items per Monday drop offs. All items brought in for consignment must be in excellent condition, current styles, in season, cleaned and folded (no hangers please) in a sturdy and secured bag.
2. Anna Banana's requires that at each drop off the consignor decides to either donate or pick up remaining items that are not accepted on consignment. Items not accepted for consignment must be picked up within 24 hours of text or call from buyer, absolutely no later than Sunday after Monday drop off or they shall be deemed abandoned, and donated. Consignors may choose to donate remaining items at any time. Consignors who opt to donate must bring their items in a donatable bag. Anna Banana's will not be held responsible for inability to contact in the case of disconnected phone numbers, illegible handwriting, full voice mailboxes, etc.
3. We do not accept items with stains, holes, rips, tears, snags, puckering, pilling, odors, lint, animal hair, or any other flaws. Items that require extra cleaning, lint rolling, etc. will be returned to the consignor. If a condition issue is found after accepting for consignment, the item will be pulled from the sales floor and deleted from our systems.
4. The consignment period is 60 days, unless otherwise specified. After 30 days, unsold items will be marked down 25%. After 60 days, unsold items will be marked down to final sale without restriction, with the exception of items priced by buyers at $30 or higher. All inventory is subject to daily and seasonal promotions, including Anna Banana's 10% dance discount, unless otherwise noted. After the consignment period, remaining items will expire and be donated.
5. The selling price of each item is at the discretion of Anna Banana's trained buyers. Typically, items are priced  $\frac{1}{3}$  of retail price if used, and  $\frac{1}{2}$  of retail price if new with tags. This number is subject to variation, dependent on the condition and marketability of each item. Following each appointment, consignors will receive their consignment potential for the accepted items via text message. Consignment potential is calculated as 40% of the total resale amount if all items sell within the first 30 days with no discounts.
6. Consignor receives 40% of selling price, immediately upon sale. Monies accrued are available immediately for pick up in store or for use as store credit. Your account will be charged a $5.00 processing fee each time a check is mailed to you. Consignor's accrued balance expires after 1 calendar year.
7. If Anna Banana's identifies an item to have a higher sales potential if "upcycled", we will "upcycle" and/or alter the item at our expense and at our discretion.
8. Once items are entered into the Anna Banana's database, they become property of the store. Anna Banana's is unable to return items brought in for consignment after this point.
9. Sales discounts may happen at any time during the item lifespan, based on market conditions.
10. All items must be properly checked in with an Anna Banana's employee upon arrival. Items left unattended will become property of Anna Banana's. While all reasonable precautions will be taken, items are consigned at the owner's risk. Anna Banana's shall not be held responsible for any damages or loss.
11. Unless otherwise specified, consignor guarantees authenticity of consigned goods and indemnifies Anna Banana's of any damages, fees, and costs that may occur as a result thereof. Additionally, supplier asserts legal ownership of all items.
12. All policies are subject to change at management discretion.

By signing below, you indicate that you have read, understand and agree to the above terms.
